

Join me on a cruise to Italy, Croatia, Turkey, and Greek Isles

For the past 11 years I've led groups of friends on annual, international trips. We've been to Paris, London, Europe, the Mediterranean, Baltic States, Russia, Israel, Peru, and North Africa. We've never had a malfunction or bad experience; just memorable, life-enhancing moments.

Please join me, October 2020, on a once-in-a-lifetime trip to the cradle of Western civilization. We'll visit Rome, the eternal city; Athens, the birthplace of democracy; Olympia, the birthplace of the Olympics, and also experience Croatia, Turkey, and the best of the Greek isles (there are 6,000 islands in Greece; we'll visit two of the best).

Mary and I have been to each of these destinations numerous times. We have always felt safe and energized by the incredible history and beauty.

There are so many things to like about this trip:

- We'll visit four countries (Italy, Croatia, Greece, Turkey).
- We'll sail on one of the finest ships at sea - Holland America's Nieuw Statendam (commissioned February, 2019).
- October is the best time of year to travel; average temperature during the day will be 75 degrees.
- It will be low season for travel in Europe, so crowds will be light.

It's been said that one of the joys of traveling is not only where you go but who you go with and who you meet along the way. This tour will be limited to 40 ladies and gentlemen who travel well—friends of mine who enjoy exploring great places.

Travel takes time and money, but it's worth the investment. You'll be stretched and challenged; you'll learn more about the world in which you live and the life you live in the world.
